

At Nexus Global Marketing Group (NGMG), we are committed to protecting the privacy of our clients and the users of our website. We do not tolerate spam, and we have adopted the following Anti-Spam Policy to prevent the sending of unsolicited emails.

Definition of Spam: Spam is any email that is sent without the recipient's prior consent or that violates any applicable laws or regulations. This includes, but is not limited to, emails that:

Contain false or misleading information in the subject line or body of the message.

Do not provide a clear and easy way for the recipient to opt out of future emails.

Use deceptive or misleading routing information.

Are sent in bulk or to a list of addresses that the sender does not have permission to use.

NGMG's Anti-Spam Policy: NGMG and its employees will not send any spam, and we will not assist or enable others to send spam. We will only send emails to recipients who have explicitly requested to receive communications from us, and we will provide a clear and easy way for recipients to opt out of future emails if they choose to do so.

Compliance with Laws and Regulations: NGMG and its employees will comply with all applicable laws and regulations regarding the sending of emails, including the CAN-SPAM Act of 2003 and any other applicable state or federal laws.

Enforcement: NGMG will take appropriate action to enforce this Anti-Spam Policy. This may include, but is not limited to, terminating the services of clients who violate this policy and reporting violations to the appropriate authorities.

Changes to this Policy: We may update this Anti-Spam Policy from time to time to reflect changes in the law or our practices. We will notify you of any material changes by posting the revised policy on our website.

If you have any questions or concerns about our Anti-Spam Policy, please contact us at legal@nexusglobal.ca
